What is an ADRC?

The Aging and Disability Resource Center (ADRC) is a public office that people can find in their communities for older people and adults with disabilities, as well as their families and friends. Our staff is available to answer your questions and help you explore all of your options. Free, private, confidential meetings with our staff are available at the resource center, over the telephone, or in a visit to your home.

We will provide links for services such as:

- Elder Benefits counseling- Providing services to adults ages 60 and older regarding information related to Social Security, Medicare, health insurance and other public and private benefit programs. Services include assistance with filing claims, solving claim errors, appealing decisions, and understanding and comparing supplemental health insurance policies.
- Disability Benefits counseling- Providing services to people ages 18-59 with physical and/ or developmental disabilities, mental illness and substance abuse disorders, regarding public and private benefits, including assistance with application and appeal procedures.
- Information and Assistance- Provide knowledge about services, programs, and solutions for disability and long-term care issues such as living arrangements, health, adult protective services, employment and training for people with disabilities, home maintenance, nutrition, Social Security, and other publicly funded programs.
- Youth Transition Services- Information about resources available when youth with disabilities reach adulthood.
- Long-term care options counseling- Offer information about the choices that are available to meet your long-term care needs discussing factors to consider when making long-term care decisions. This includes enrollment into long term care options (Family Care and IRIS).
- Adaptive Equipment loan closet- Adaptive equipment available to borrow including commodes, bath benches, walkers, wheelchairs, etc.
- Family caregiver services- Consultation with individuals and families, support group, respite programs, adult day care, educational materials.
- Health & Wellness programs- Healthy living programs, falls prevention workshops, nutrition workshops, and caregiver support workshops.
- Incontinence supplies
- Liquid nutritional supplements- Available at reduced prices to adults who have a doctor's or dietician's order for the products.
- Meals-on-Wheels- Meals are delivered to homebound adults age 60+ and includes a check on their well-being.
- Senior dining- Healthy, appetizing meals served at senior centers and public housing. Opportunity for networking, visiting with friends, and volunteering.
- Memory care connections- Support for spouses and others caring for a loved one with Alzheimer's disease at home.

- Private-Pay caregiver list- Families needing to hire a caregiver can review a list of private pay persons seeking work. Families use their private funds to directly pay caregivers.
- Tax-aide- Help with filing Wisconsin Homestead Tax and income tax returns.
- Transportation- Information about transportation choices and volunteer drivers.
- Farmer's Market Vouchers- Assistance with the application for fresh produce vouchers (June-October).
- Wisconsin Home Energy Assistance Program- Assistance with application for heating and electric assistance for the heating season (October- May).
